10 years Quaesta Capital AG

The Swiss Asset Manager and Currency Specialist celebrates the first decade of its existence.

Pfäffikon Schwyz, 3rd November 2015 Domiciled in Pfäffikon Schwyz the currency specialist Quaesta Capital AG celebrates its 10th anniversary this year. "2005 to 2015 – we can look back on successful ten years – and today our passion for the business and the work for our customers is still as great as on the first day" rejoice CEO Thomas Suter and Chairman Martin Wiedmann.

Comprehensive services, continuity in customer relations

With its core competencies in the fields of FX risk management, FX transaction processing as well as currency and macro investment products, the specialized asset manager has firmly established itself in the industry. The client roster of Quaesta Capital AG includes pension funds, family offices, investment funds, asset managers, companies and wealthy individuals. "With our niche position we are fully in line with the trend" says the Quaesta Capital CEO. "Our business philosophy is another point of differentiation. The focus on the needs of each client and a continuity in the relationship have highest priority for us" describes Thomas Suter Quaesta Capital's recipe for success. "We offer a bespoke and personal service in currency and asset management matters. We are independent, transparent, strive to act with integrity and pursue mutually profitable partnerships." With the Quaesta Capital currency management clients benefit from full transparency and cost savings.

Cooperation with renowned names in the industry

In order to offer customers the best performance in its widest sense, Quaesta Capital AG is also working with leading providers of the financial services industry, such as the Zürcher Kantonalbank. Since October 2014 clients of Quaesta Capital AG are offered FXBE | FX Best Execution - a combination of the company's Best Execution and the FX Prime Brokerage of Zürcher Kantonalbank. This innovation allows them to execute foreign exchange transactions with an enlarged range of market participants in an easy way. FXBE | FX Best Execution also provides smaller and medium-sized pension funds, family offices, investment funds and other institutional clients with access to an independent and transparent solution for the implementation of foreign exchange transactions.

In keeping with its "best in class" philosophy Quaesta Capital AG also started a strategic research partnership with Wellershoff & Partners Ltd. which has resulted in the new Quaesta Capital FX Monthly – a bulletin that provides readers with up-to-date insights into the global economy and financial markets and information with high practical value. Furthermore customers will benefit from personal meetings with the experts of Wellershoff & Partners Ltd.

Expansion of philanthropic commitment

Quaesta Capital AG assumes the 10-year anniversary as an opportunity to further expand the company's and staff's traditional year-end donations to a charitable organization. "Every day we work in globally connected markets and therefore want to express our solidarity with the people in these countries through this philanthropic commitment" says Thomas Suter. "In this special year 2015 we will provide financial support to foundations in Asia and Latin America that help disadvantaged families and children."
